

Jellyfish

© John Palme 2009

E B7

1. You think you're better than a jellyfish. You're not.

E

If I was ever forced to choose – good luck!

A B

The world needs a jellyfish more than it needs you.

A B

And on the list of the worlds needs,

A B A B C#m A B7

you're 66 billion, 700 million, 800 thousand, 1 hundred 9 2.

2. If you think you'll be missed when you're gone – get real.

I'll mourn more for the weeds on the lawn. That's how I feel.

The weeds on the lawn give me more comfort than you.

On the list of comforts you're...

3. You're jealous of the way I treat a dog. Don't beg.

I'd rather have a strange dog lick my leg.

A dog's tail can't hide what he feels about you.

And even on a dogs list, you're...

4. You say you want a natural death. Well, that's fine.

'Cause in nature most creatures are eaten alive.

Nature is a beauty but she can be so cruel.

And when counting the ways to die, you get...